THE LATE BENJAMIN TAYLOR.

23 he married Mary Ann Fener. In 1840 he accepted the gospel and emigrated to America the following year, settling in Nauvoo. Here he suffered much through sickness and poverty, he emigrated to Utah in 1859 and the following year settled at Willard where he has since resided.

Father Taylor was of that strong, stalwart type so common among the early pioneers. His honest, simple life, his devotion to duty and his unwavering testimony have been a powerful factor for good among his associates.

He is survived by five children, 40 grandchildren and 68 great-grandchildren.

ACCUSED OF GRAND LARCENY.

A young man from Monroe named Arthur Hodges was in town today attending to some business with G. Ence. agent for Studebaker Bros. Co. The business completed, Mr. Hodges stepped outside and Mr. Ence went to the bank, leaving the office and cash drawer unlocked. Upon his return he discovered that $198 had been taken from the drawer. Mr. Ence promptly swore to a complaint, charging Mr. Hodges with the crime of grand larceny. The young man had left for Monroe and the constable was instructed to arrest and search him, which he did, but found no trace of the missing money. The defendant was admitted to ball in the sum of $1,000, which he furnished. He will have a hearing before City Justice Lauritzen on Tuesday, Dec. 17.

MISSIONARY PROGRAM. Christmas Remembrance for Foreign Ministers-Funeral of Geo. Rowley.

Ministers—Funeral of Geo. Rowley.

Special Correspondence.

American Fork, Utah Co., Dec. 16.—
A splendid missionary program was enjoyed by a large assembly of people last evening in the First ward church, as the results of the labor of the missionary committee, assisted by other returned missionaries, canvassing and tracting the city yesterday afternoon. Elder F. A. Jackson, Bernard Christensen, E. J. Clayson and Earl Greenwood discoursed upon the "Apostacy," "Restoration," "Book of Mormon" and "The Resurrection" respectively.

A collection for the missionaries in the field was taken up and $50 was raised. A Christmas remembrance of $10 each has been forwarded to the missionaries in the field, and the balance of the amount necessary will be realized next Friday evening, when a very fine program will be rendered in the opera house by the entertaining talent of the town. One of the main features will be several choruses by a band of 50 schoolboys, who have been in training for a month past by the district school musical director, Miss Lottie Owens. This same class of boys are preparing to entertain the state teachers' institute or convention while it convenes in Provo the first week in January.

FUNERAL OF GEORGE ROWLEY

FUNERAL OF GEORGE ROWLEY.

The funeral services over the remains of George Rowley were held today in the Second ward chapel, President Clarke of Alpine stake presiding, Bishop Smith and Thomas Featherstone being the speakers, each dwelling upon the noble traits of character of the deceased. Joseph B. Foraker read a short biographical sketch. Deceased had passed his eightleth year, half of which he has spent in total blindness. He was born in Thornia, Yorkshire, England, in 1827; joined the Church in 1847, and emigrated to Utah shortly after. In 1857-9 he filled a mission in Great Britain, laboring in Wales. About 40 years ago, while working in a mill at the mouth of Cottonwood canyon he contracted a disease and as a result lost his sight. He leaves three children, 22 grandchildren and 28 great-grandchildren to cherish his memory. FUNERAL OF GEORGE ROWLEY.

CARDSTON, CANADA BUSINESS AND REALTY BOOM. Municipal Election—Big Shipments

Of Grain and Beef Cattle,

Special Correspondence.
Cardston, Alberta, Canada, Dec. 6.—
To pick pansies in full bloom from the garden, on Dec. 1, should be a pleasure fully enjoyed, north of the forty-ninth parallel. Yet that is what could be done in Cardston on that date. The most excellent weather for all work has continued up to date. The results are that fall plowing is still in full blast, threshing almost accomplished and everything in the finest condition to the material advantage of the farmer. As an evidence of the "push" manifested at the station here, seven cars are being loaded at once with grain, 20 cars of beef cattle, and one of baled hay. Nearly every day brings some new prospector and real estate is rapidly changing hands. This week the Leavitt brothers, familiarly known as the "dubs," sold their farm just east of town to Dr. Wicks of Galesburg, Ill., at a splendid figure. The Leavitts expect to leave Canada and locate in Cache valley, Utah. H. P. Barber and family will also locate in Logan.

President E. J. Wood and James S. Parker returned last week from the trip to Great Britain with beef cattle. Both are look well and express themselves as highly pleased with their trip in every way.

In the municipal elections held here today, Mark Spencer becomes mayor, with Thomas Duce, William Burten, James C. Cahoon and Mark A. Coombs the new members of the council. W. O. Lee, Sterling Williams and D. E. Harris were elected on the school board. Joseph Y. Card and family left for Logan, Utah; Mr. Card to continue on to Europe to fill a mission, the family to remain there during his absence.
